

Click to Print

Jul, 8, 2008

Java Town Espresso opens second drive-thru in Ferndale

BUSINESS NOTEBOOK

The grand opening for a second Java Town Espresso is scheduled for 7 a.m. today in Ferndale.

The new Java Town Espresso, a 24-hour drive-thru stand, was built by Credo Construction at 5715 Barrett Road, adjacent to Emerald Bay Events.

Ken and Lynda Alfreds are owners of Ferndale's Java Town Espresso and Denise Adams is the manager.

Java Town Espresso features espresso roasts from Batdorf & Bronson in Olympia.

The first Java Town Espresso opened in 1998 at 2715 Meridian St. in Bellingham.

For more information about Java Town Espresso, call 383-0700.

Bank of the Pacific opens new branch

The Bank of the Pacific will be celebrating the opening of its new Ferndale branch on Wednesday. The new larger facility will be at 1860 Main St. in the former Mount's Cafe spot.

It will have a drive-thru and expanded parking, according to a company press release.

The bank will have an opening ceremony at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, then host a variety of events through Friday. This includes a Real Estate Day on Thursday, providing free credit reports and having loan representatives on hand to help potential homebuyers gain a better understanding of the loan process.

For more information about Bank of the Pacific, visit www.thebankofpacific.com.

Send your business news to business@bellinghamherald.com. Please include a contact name and phone number.